

I am very upset by Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary so close to the election especially if they do not balance it with a similar piece re: George Bush.

It is my understanding that Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. When large companies control the airwaves, we get something produced at "News Central" far away, rather than news from real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. Thank you.
